DEDICATION

The Fathers of Confederation

In the history of Canada there have been no men who have influenced our lives as Canadians more than the Fathers of Confederation, through whose ceaseless efforts Canada was given an identity separate from any other nation. It was primarily through their endeavours that the original Dominion of Canada of 1867 was finally realized after years filled with bitter opposition and many disheartening delays.

The first advance towards any kind of federation came in September, 1864 at the Charlottetown Conference where delegates from the Maritime provinces discussed a possible Maritime Federation. Delegates invited from Ontario and Quebec convinced the assembled delegation that a union of all Canada might be more desirable. The conference adjourned to Quebec to further the plans for such a scheme. By October 28th, 1864, the "Fathers of Confederation" had drawn up the famous seventy-two resolutions which later formed the basis of Canada's constitution. After ratification of the proposals by the different provincial legislatures, which caused many delays, the final plan of federation was submitted to the authority of the British Government. The new constitution was adopted as a statute of the imperial legislature under the name of the British North America Act in March of 1867. On July 1, 1867, a proclamation brought the act into force for the provinces of Nova Scotia, New Brunswick, Ontario, and Quebec, and the Dominion of Canada entered on the first stage of existence.

So it is in memory of these noble and domineering men that we dedicate our work in gratitude for their successful efforts to establish Canada as a constituted nation.

His Excellency Most Reverend
MARTIN M. JOHNSON, D.D.
Archbishop of Vancouver

Most Reverend
JAMES F. CARNEY
Auxiliary Bishop of Vancouver

Right Reverend
T.M. NICHOL, V.G.
Pastor

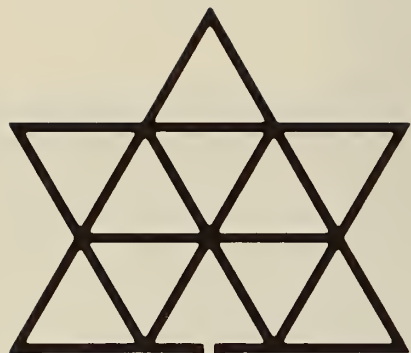

On Thursdays the Student Mass was held in the Music Room. Here it is celebrated by Father Bach, the school Chaplain.

Acknowledgements

In the course of the school year much advice and help has been graciously offered to the yearbook staff by different people not directly connected with the staff itself. The yearbook staff, in return, would like to give special recognition to two such individuals, Mr. Bill Cunningham ('26) and Mr. Manuel Espinosa, who have devoted time and effort to better the appearance of the Collegian. Both of these men have given advice and assistance in the photography end of the Collegian.

The chapel in the Brothers' Residence is available for use by all the students at College.

GRADE 8

1867 | 1967

Graduates

GRADUATES '67

JOHN J. ALTON

John first walked through the doors of Vancouver College while in Grade five. Besides playing Junior Varsity basketball, he has been a part of the College grid-iron squad for the past three years. John enjoys hitch-hiking and plans to spend his next few years at S.F.U.

JACK ANDERSON

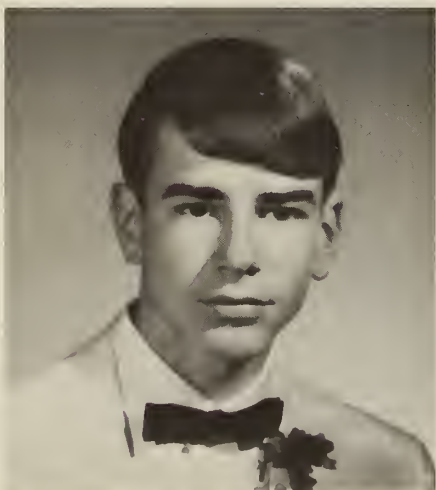

A new face at College this year, Jack came from the outer reaches of Ladner. He has participated in Intramurals and has been among the few seniors with first class honours. His spare time is spent hunting and boating. Jack wants to go south to complete his education.

PAUL ANDREWS

A member of Sts. Peter and Paul Parish, Paul started his schooling twelve years ago at the College. He has been active in Intramural Football, Basketball and Volleyball and, on the weekends, may be seen on the ski slopes or the golf course. Paul hopes to go into Law at U.B.C.

HARRY J. BARBER

Since coming to the College in Grade eleven, Harry has been a loyal supporter of College activities. A resident of Sts. Peter and Paul Parish, Harry relaxes at a swimming pool or a pool hall. After graduation, Harry will commence higher education.

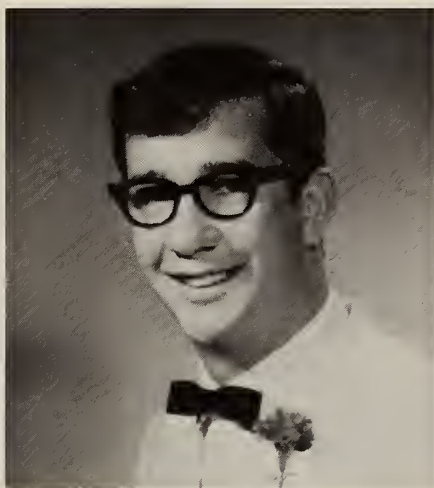

Jack McLaughlin and Brian Longpré dress for adult society.

JOHN A. BARKER

Coming from Columbia three years ago, John has brought some South American ideas to the College. He is a strong influence as Editor of the school newspaper. His enjoyments include reading, talking and being around people. John hopes to acquire a B.A. at S.F.U. and continue on to Law School.

LEONARD BARTFAI

Len, a boarder for the past two years, calls Powell River home. While at V.C., he has been active in weightlifting, intramural football and intramural basketball. Hunting, fishing, and skiing use up Len's spare time. He has decided to further his education at S.F.U.

JOHN BEATON

As captain of our Varsity Football team and one of our key basketball players, John has been a great asset to College in the sports field. He has also been an Honour Roll student since coming from Immaculate Conception five years ago. John would like to continue his sportsman's life at university.

Hugh Burke and Randy Ranger are active in a popular noontime activity homework.

ROBERT G. BEAUPRE

Bob has been active at V.C. since he came here nine years ago. Even while playing J.V. and Varsity Basketball, however, he has kept on the Honour Roll. Besides this Bob was a member of the Associated Students' Club. After obtaining a Masters in Civil Engineering at McGill, he plans to be a big success in life.

PAUL R. BELL
Paul, who hails from Calgary, spent one year at the College. To sit and to meditate, and to drive sports cars are his favourite pastimes. As to his future, Paul has decided to attend S.F.U. and then McGill for law.

MAURICE BOISVERT

In the five years he has attended the College, Maurice has been active in Glee Club and Intramural Football. Outside of school, he is an avid sailor, a football player and a tennis player. His greatest fear is a barber shop. Maurice's next step is into Business Administration at U.B.C.

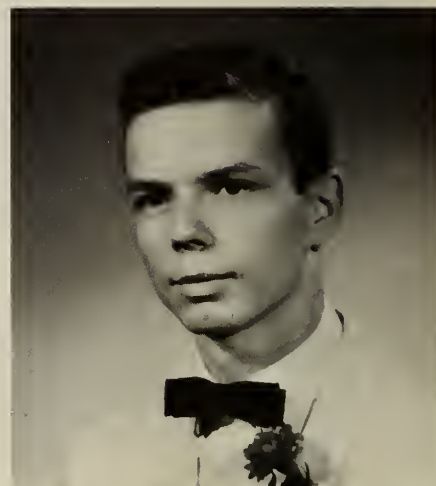

DANNY BOWEN

A four-year College student from Our Lady of Lourdes Parish, Danny has been a great asset to intramural football captains. He spends his spare time skiing, swimming, playing hockey, or football and hopes to continue his education at S.F.U.

H. CRAIG BOYLE

Entering College in Grade nine, Craig has been on the Yearbook staff for two years and in the U.N. Club three years, one of which he was President. Craig enjoys the U.N. Club, dances, sports, work and homework in that order. His future lies in the field of architectural engineering.

"Hey, you guys — she IS MY girl, after all!!"

HUGH BURKE

A seven-year College veteran from O.L.P.H. parish, Hugh has kept his Religion classes interesting with his personal philosophy of life, known as Burke's Law. A consistent Honour Student, Hugh participated in Boxing and Intramurals. He wants to further guide his fellow men as a sociologist.

PETER A. BUSCH

In his four years at the College, Peter has been a recurrent Honour Roll student. He played Varsity Football and joined the Track Team. Pete also enjoys water skiing, swimming and playing soccer. His career will probably be in the accounting field.

WAYNE CAMPBELL

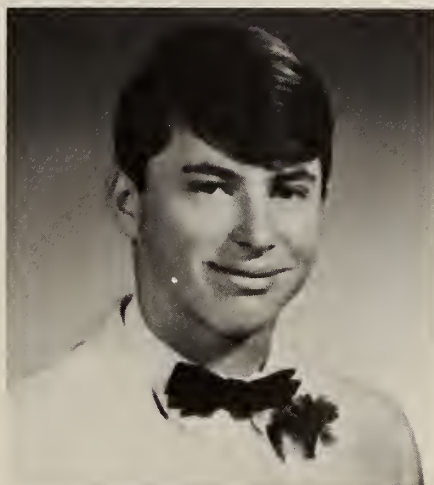

A student of six years at the College, Wayne is noted for his casual clothes and up-to-date dress. Anything for kicks, Wayne is a 'nighthawk' who enjoys dances and parties. After attending Dentistry School, Wayne will dedicate his life to repairing cavities.

"The style's great but the fit isn't quite right."

ELMER T. CARROTHERS

Distinguished as one of the ten who have gone the full route at the College, Elmer enjoys water skiing and the young life. His weekends are spent either at Gassy Jack's or The Spot. Elmer hopes to satisfy his ambitions at U.B.C.'s School of Medicine.

MICHAEL J. CAVANAUGH

An old-timer at the College, Mike has brightened the Brothers' lives for ten years. He can be seen in the winter in the chalet or on the slopes, demonstrating his talents to girls. In the summer, he is similarly occupied at Kits Beach where he enjoys playing or listening to Rhythm and Blues. Mike will enter U.B.C. after graduation.

Another of our "twelve-year" men, Gordy has volunteered his "beautiful voice" to the Glee Club for three years. His spare time is employed playing hockey or football or swimming. He has decided to spend the money he makes as a lawyer on a ranch.

ROBERT COTTER

One of our students from the foggy marshlands of Tsawwassen, Bob has been here since Grade eight. He has lent his brain to the U.N. Club and his speed to the track team. He ranks History 12 among his greatest dislikes. Bob dreams of the day he can leave his home hicktown for Nelson to attend University of Notre Dame.

BRIAN M. DEACON

Brian, an eight year College student, gets his outdoor pleasure from swimming and skiing. His chief interests, aside from parties, are tropical fish. His love of animals will be fulfilled when he settles down with a large family as a veterinarian.

MARTIN B. DESHAW

Marty came to the College two years ago by way of O.L.P.H. and has participated in intramural football and basketball. He burns up excess energy by golfing, swimming and water skiing. Martin wants to build up his future in a Law career.

PHILIP J. DESMAZES

From the beautiful secluded town of Westbridge, B.C., Phil entered the College in Grade eleven. Phil has shown his aggressiveness in football and wrestling and occupies his time with hockey or sleep. Phil, a "down to earth" student, hopes to go into geology at S.F.U.

DEAN D. DWIGHT

Another student from the "sticks", Dean came to the College out of the Tsawwassen fog five years ago. He is often seen driving a bronze Falcon in the area between the North Shore and Birch Bay. His pet peeve is daily commuting from the "outer limits". After graduation, Dean will attend U.B.C.

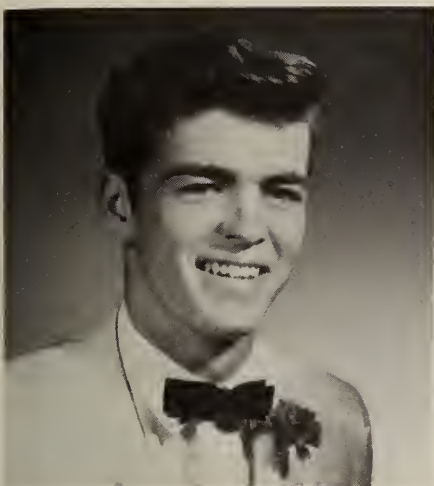

DOUGLAS P. ELMORE

Doug, a representative of the West End, has kept the Brothers working for five years. Besides chasing girls, Doug has used his speed on the College track team. He spends his spare time on his friend's sailboat and skiing. Though Doug's immediate future will be spent at university, he hopes eventually to become a Japanese gardener.

The word of Chairman Mao explains evils of "revisionism" to Malcolm Porter, Tom Kolstee and Robert O'Neill.

TERRY FARMER

A native of the typical B.C. town of Enderby, Terry has boarded at College for three years. In his country habitat, he enjoys hunting, fishing and water skiing. After a break from the academic life, Terry would like to enter S.F.U. in January, 1968.

JIM FETHERSTONAUGH

Jim came to the Brothers six years ago from Immaculate Conception. He has played football and basketball and has been a class officer, a member of the Associated Students' Club and President of the Drama Club. Jim enjoys working with electronic equipment and hopes to continue into the audio-technical field at University.

PATRICK J. FIELD

Pat has been one of the College's daily commuters from West Vancouver since Grade nine. He has kept on the Honour Roll constantly and was both a track and a drama "star". He has toiled as Editor of the Yearbook. On the weekends, Pat enjoys golf, skating, and pool. He will enter the Science Faculty at U.B.C.

DANIEL FOSLIEN

In his five years at the College, Danny's main activity has been fighting for the Purple and Gold in the boxing ring. A great lover of water, Dan competes in water skiing and is on the YMCA swim team. After a few years of fun at S.F.U., he wants to follow Snoopy into the clouds as an airline pilot.

MICHAEL P. FLOOD

1958 was the "year of Flood" when Mike first appeared at the College. Mike, a Holy Name Parishioner, relaxes from homework at tennis courts and swimming pools. He is looking forward to a successful business career after finishing Business Administration at U.B.C.

RUSSELL FUOCO

Russ is one of the new students who came to the College this year. He loves to ski on both the mountains and the sea. Russ added his muscle to the Fighting Irish in his senior year. He is looking forward to a University education after receiving his diploma.

JOSEPH L. GAGNON

In Grade eleven, Joe came to the College from the seminary at Mission. One of the Honour Roll elite, he spends his spare time reading, bowling, and listening to music. A faithful follower of Br. Lyons, Joe wishes to specialize in Chemistry or Physics at U.B.C.

RAYMOND J. GAYLIE

Ray has brightened the brothers' lives since Grade one, has played in intramurals and has sung in the Glee Club. He was also a "popular" basketball manager. To relieve the tension of school, Ray waterskis and plays hockey. U.B.C. will decide Ray's career.

ROBERT GORMICAN

Ever since entering the College from Immaculate Conception four years ago, Bob has been on the Honour Roll. Bob is both in the U.N. Club and on the '67 Yearbook. He is looking forward to continued success at U.B.C.

ROBERT GIRODAY

A local Saints Peter and Paul Parishoner, Robert has run a five-year stretch at the College. He enjoys making weird chemicals in the lab. His diversions from long study hours include swimming, reading, girl chasing and playing ticktacktoe. Bob hopes to dig into zoology at university.

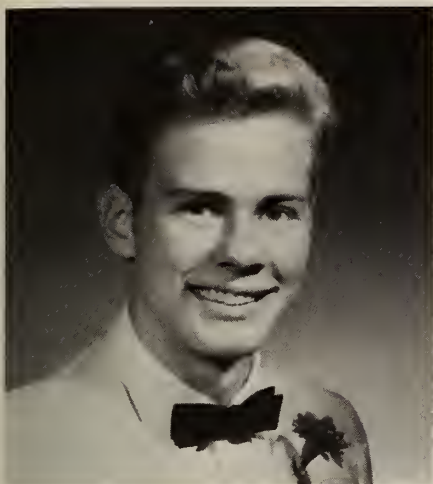

PATRICK S. GIBBONS

A nine-year College student, Pat has belonged to the Glee Club and the U.N. Club. As Business Editor of the Yearbook, he has helped Br. Lyons collect money for the past two years. Pat's favourite pastime is work, especially with female assistants. After graduation, he wants to go east to McMasters University.

Janet Lee and Eva Adamovitch pioneered female equality at the College.

STEPHEN A. GRAHAM

A liberal Conservative who is depressed with the modern world, Steve has spoken out for social justice since he came to the College six years ago. An active student, he has been in football, U.N. Club, Bowling and Intramurals, as well as being on the school executive. He enjoys studying people and, after entering a law or psychiatric career, hopes, as Prime Minister, to lead Canada to higher goals.

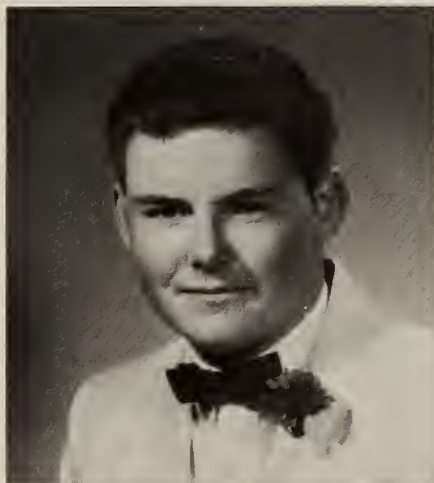

Brian Longpré campaigns for the school Presidency — or was that the Vice-Presidency?

PETER A. GRANT

Since descending on the College six years ago from O.L.P.H., Pete has been a regular honour student. He has been a U.N. supporter since Grade ten and has been the industrious Senior Editor. Pete enjoys dancing, skiing and swimming. Planning to enter Law School, he eventually hopes to see the world.

MICHAEL R. GRAY

Four years ago Mike came to the College from Immaculate Conception. He partakes in the peace and relaxation of fishing. An Air Cadet, Mike will receive a university education through the Regular Officer Training Program.

GERALD M. GREBA

Gerry came from the realm of Saint Andrew's Parish in Grade nine. Outside the academic field, he plays pool and goes to dances and parties. His cultural interests include the Beach Boys and Jazz. A medic at heart, Gerry will enter orthodontistry or dentistry after a relaxing trip to Hawaii.

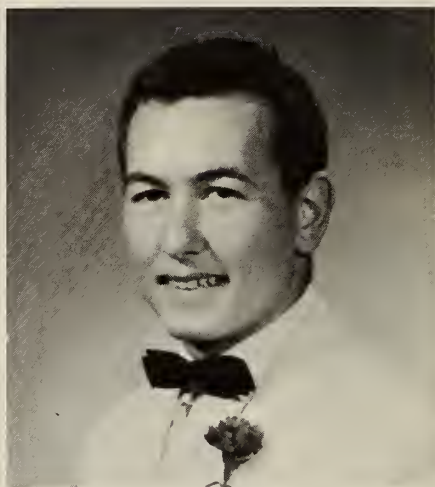

JAMES V. HAMLIN

In his four years at the College, Jim has actively participated in "lunch." After homework, Jim works on his stamp collection and, on cold weekends, goes skiing. Though he dreams of becoming a professional skier, Jim's immediate future will be spent in the civil service.

CHARLES HANCOCK

Charlie came to the College in the vintage year of '55 and took top honours for many years. He has enjoyed wielding a whip as Senior Basketball and Senior Track manager. He takes out his frustrations on animals through hunting. He will wait until the added maturity of a university education allows him a broader choice of career.

WILLIAM C. HARDY

In Grade eleven, Bill migrated south from Prince Rupert to board at the College. He has helped V.C.'s Varsity Football and Track teams and has also relieved the tension of students who sit near him with his harmonious singing. Bill's career will be teaching.

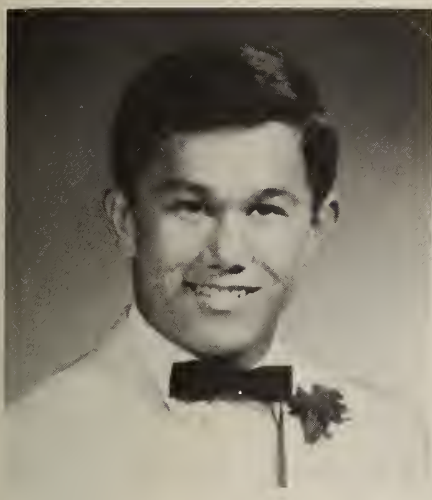

MICHAEL D. HARVEY

For four years Mike has commuted from the southern outpost of White Rock to the College. He has taken a good share of honours and is one of the revolutionary few who has backed the U.N. Club for three years. Mike does not know what awaits him beyond university.

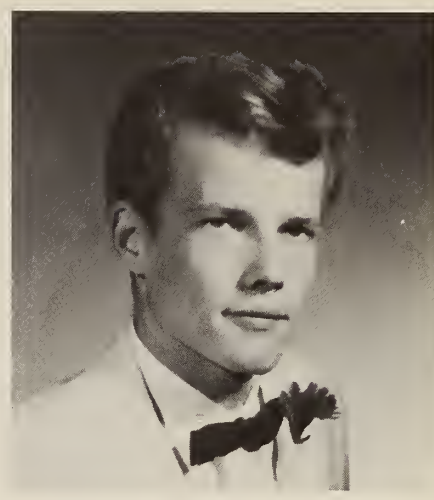

DAVID G. HISLOP

Since he came here nine years ago, Dave has shown his worth as a basketball player and track star. He has played Varsity Basketball for three years and was on the track team for two. He is also in the Associated Students' Club. Dave has not committed himself to a particular field but wants to attend University.

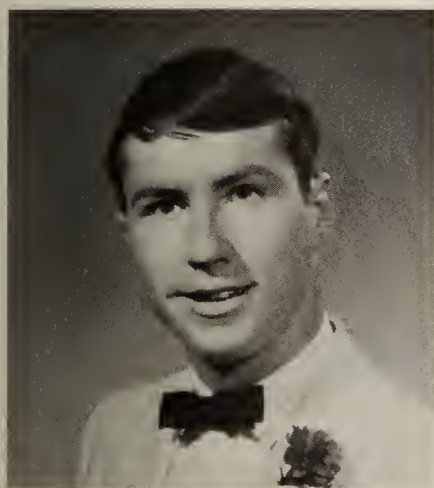

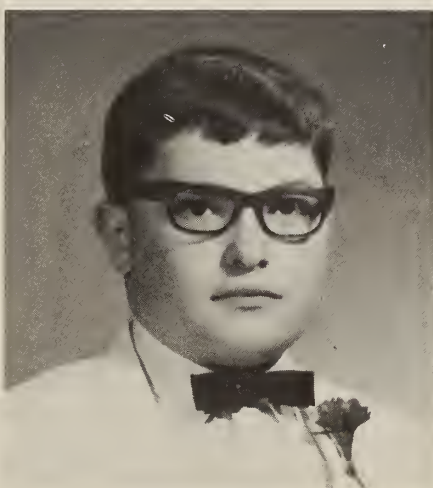

WILLIAM J. HUNSCHÉ
This exuberant boy has spent six years at the College and has been active in bowling and volleyball. His outside interests include cars, hunting and golf. Bill enjoys Economics and plans a future in Business Administration.

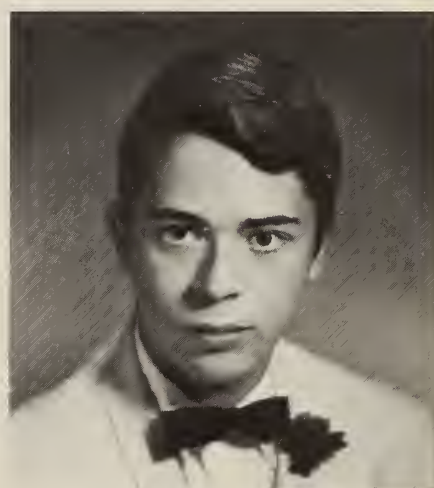

DENNIS A. HUGH
Ever since coming from Saint Francis Xavier four years ago, Dennis has played College football. He has also been a star honour student and, in his senior year, has served as school treasurer. Dennis' other school activities have been track and sodality. Outside of school, he enjoys football, swimming and track.

EDWARD HYDER
Ted's complete academic education since Grade one has been at the College. Since Grade nine he has been active in Intramurals. He swims, fishes, and plays football in his leisure hours. After graduation, he will channel his abilities into the biology field.

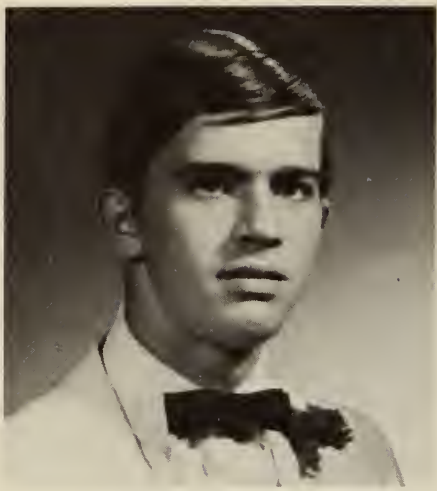

ROBERT JANYK
In the past four years, "Big Bob" has enjoyed the College life, though sometimes to the brothers' dismay. Bob has three loves: cars, money, and the "pursuit of happiness". In the future Bob wishes to utilize all his energies in furthering his "pursuit of happiness".

EDWARD G. KAROLYI
Ed came to the College in Grade seven from Saint Louis College in Victoria. Besides being an honour student, he has been active in the U.N. Club. Full of vitality, Ed plays cards, pool, tennis, and golf and bowls. He will satisfy his morbid desires by entering medicine.

"Uhh . . . Ralph, she's over there!"

DANIEL P. KENNEDY

In his four years at the College, Dan has greatly impressed his teachers and fellow students. He was an intramural football captain in his senior year. When not on his motorcycle, Dan likes to stroll in parks and converse with "birds". Before entering the U.B.C. School of Architecture, Dan wants to visit San Francisco, Toronto and New York.

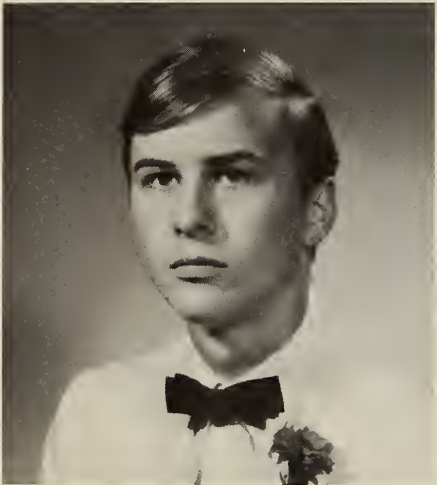

BRIAN D. KENNELLY

Two years ago Brian came out of the wilderness around Princeton to attend College. In his senior year, he has been active in intramural football and basketball and also has added his voice to the Glee Club. Brian's free time is spent on the ski slopes, in swimming pools, at parties or in the hunter's paradise around Princeton. Brian's ambition is to enter Law.

ROBERT KENT

Bob is among the students initiated into the College by Brother Breen four years ago. He was on the Fighting Irish line and kept in shape with intramurals. His athletic abilities extend into the boxing ring, golf course and tennis courts. His future lies in the business field.

ANTON F. KOLSTEE

Tom can be recognized as the lead guitarist for the United Empire Loyalists who have often played at College dances. Though the band keeps him busy, he has found time to manage football, sing in the Glee Club and work on the Yearbook's Sports section. For the next few years Tom will devote himself to university and the band.

JACOB D. KUBIK

A native of Lethbridge, Alberta, Jack has resided at the College for "two long years." He has played Intramurals and has been on the track team. His spare time activities vary from swimming and tennis to tournament bridge. After graduation, Jack is looking forward to returning to the prairies for a career in the agricultural field.

Ed Karolyi wreaks vengeance on Steve Graham with fatal consequences.

Seniors are not exempt from the tough College discipline.

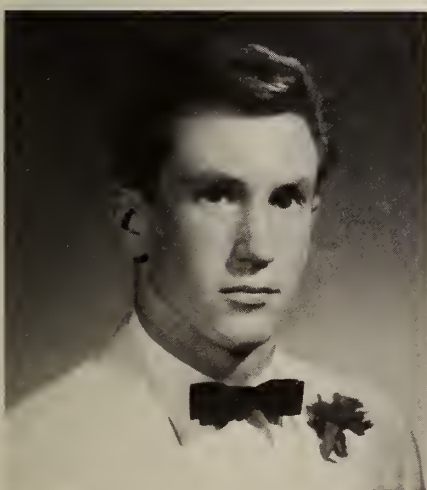

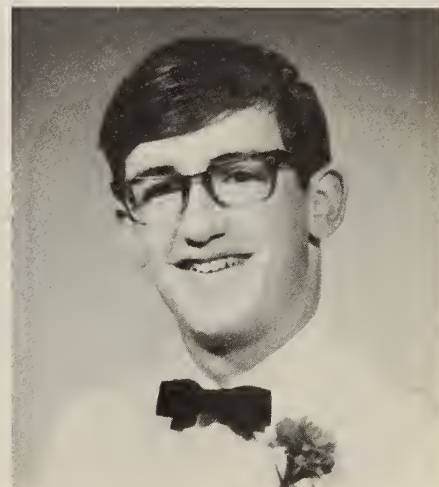

JOHN LAY

Since coming from Bangkok, Thailand, to the College in Grade eleven, John has helped lead the boarders as their Vice-President. His athletic interests include football, basketball, badminton, swimming and judo. John's plans are to follow business administration at U.B.C.

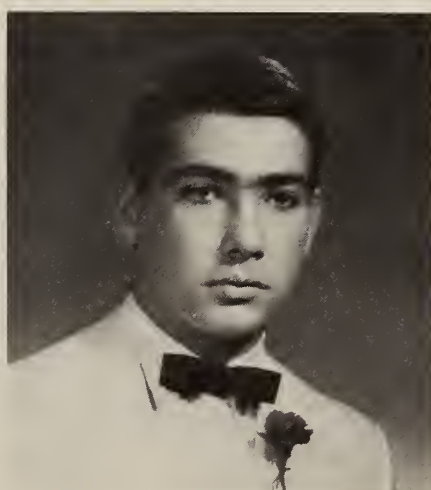

RODGER D. LECLAIR

Rodger came here via Richmond in Grade seven and has partaken in J.V. Football and Basketball. He enjoys the cold weather when he can play hockey. Rodger will advance to U.B.C. to prepare for an architectural engineering career.

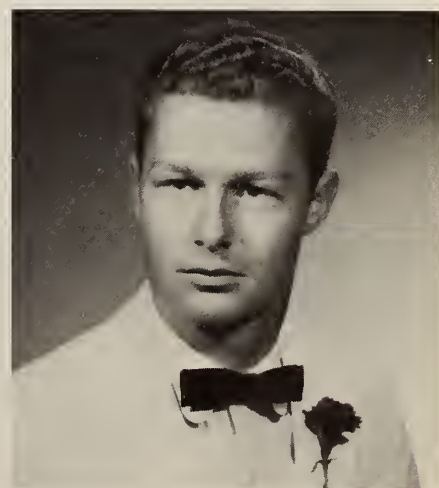

REGINALD S. LETOURNEAU

A native of New Westminster, "Big Reg" entered the College in Grade ten. He joined the football fracas on our Varsity team this year and has been a "regular" on the honour roll. For the next few years, Reg will study engineering.

BRIAN G. LONGPRE

For a West Vancouverite, Brian has shown great potential as a class leader in his ten years at the College. An active honour student, he was football captain and Vice-President of the Associated Students' Club. He enjoys philosophizing and getting his picture taken. Before retiring, he plans to become a great and famous personality.

DAVID J. LOW

A member of the track team and Glee Club, Dave's more interesting activities lie off the campus and include skating, sailing, fishing and hunting. A top student in Brother Lyon's Chemistry class, Dave's future will be in medicine.

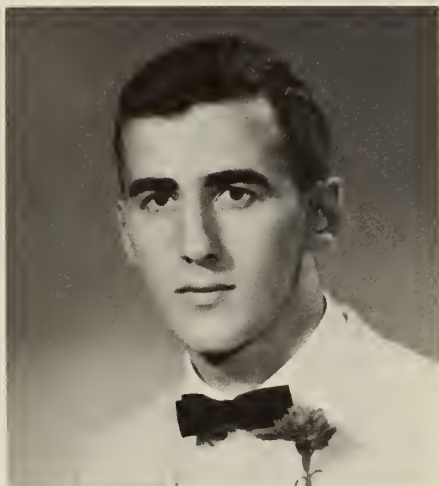

MICHAEL McCULLOUGH

Six years ago, Mike first opened the College doors. He has played J.V. football and enjoys most sports. He is also an avid fan of rock and roll. One of the few individualists of his class, Mike sets his own style in clothes and has resisted the attacks of conformists. He wants to continue on to U.B.C.

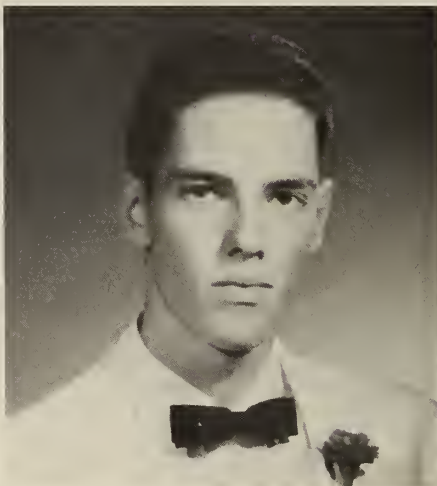

BRIAN M. McDANIELL

Since coming to the College from Holy Trinity Parish five years ago, Brian has played intramural football and basketball. A year-round sports enthusiast, Brian skis, skates, swims and waterskis. After graduation he will add to his "treasure trove" of knowledge through university.

DENNIS J. MacDonald

In his ten years at the College, Dennis has been very active in sports. He joined the football and basketball teams, besides being on the honour roll. His leisure world is dominated by books. Simon Fraser University will extend his education further.

JOHN F. McDONALD

Five years ago, John came to us from Saint Andrew's Parish and, since then, he has played freshman football and has been very active in YCS. For recreation, he likes the wilds where he can hunt and fish. His immediate designs are to strengthen his education at university.

JOHN W. MacDonald

Our second John MacDonald is a four-year College student from Saints Peter and Paul Parish. He enjoys football, hockey and basketball, and is a loyal supporter of College dances. John, a consistent honour student, will augment his education at university.

JOHN M. McLAUGHLIN

A North Van inhabitant who has been popular ever since entering the College in Grade nine, Jack ruled as School President in his senior year. He has also been captain of Varsity Basketball and plays soccer in his free time. Jack has held top honours at College which were culminated by the recent award of a $3,000 scholarship from Harvard University.

J. ERIC McMAHON

Eric's strong English accent was first heard at the College in Grade eleven. He has since utilized it in the Glee Club. Eric has found Canada better suited than the Isles for his favourite pastimes of hunting, fishing and camping. His next adventure is to travel around Europe for a year and then attend university.

There is a great variety of programs to help seniors move out into the world.

DONALD P. MACAULAY

As Steveston's sole representative in the Senior class, Don has been an honour student since coming here in Grade nine. His arduous labour as Classes Editor was over in October and for the rest of the year, he condescended to help other Editors in dire need. Don was also accepted into the U.N. Club. His future—further education.

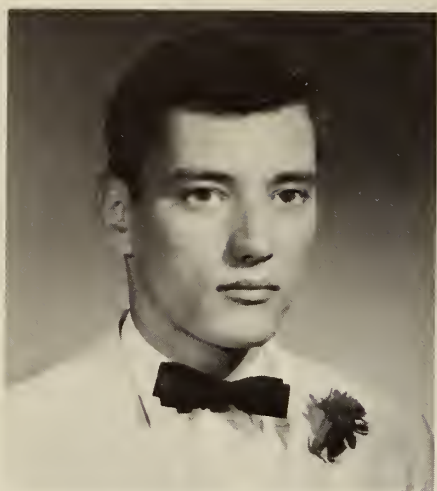

PATRICK M. MAGUIRE

One of the "Immaculate Conception gang", Pat's physique has been seen at the College for seven years. He was a welcome sight on the "Fighting Irish" and also played intramurals. As a Letterman, he has been in the Associated Students' Club. Pat loathes detentions. He hopes to be admitted to the bar after university.

LOTAR MAURER

In his six years at the College, Lotar has sacrificed much for his school. In Grade ten and eleven he was an honour student and also managed basketball for a year. He spends weekends sailing, skiing, hunting, and fishing. After a year in the wilderness, Lotar will enter civil engineering.

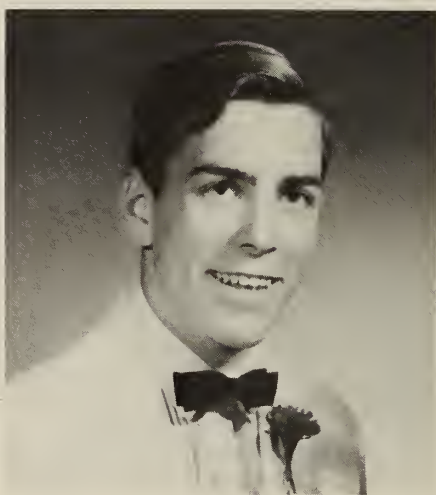

WILLIAM MILOGLAV

Since coming out of the Richmond Swamplands three years ago, Bill has been on the College football squad. Outside school, Bill's energies are absorbed by swimming and wrestling. After receiving his diploma, Bill wants to embark on a world tour.

Bob Beaupré takes advantage of his Senior status.

CHRISTOPHER H. MOORE

Chris' life at the College began seven years ago. Besides being in the Glee Club and Intramurals, he has been Vice-President of the U.N. Club and Activities Editor of the Yearbook. Unbelievably, he still finds time for skiing, chess and snooker. Though he eventually wants to become a famous novelist, next year Chris will help swell the ranks of our Armed Forces.

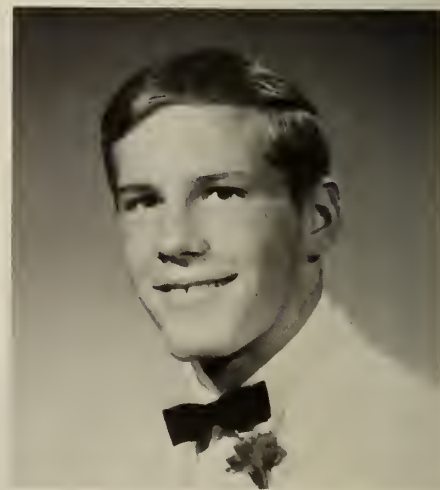

ELSON M. MORGAN

Elson is especially noted for his wild parts in the drama skits and for assisting Br. Angel in French. His athletic interests included Varsity Football and Intramurals. His after-school hours are spent with war novels, cars or electrical equipment. He spends his weekends under water (skin diving) or at the drags. Elson's next plunge will be into law.

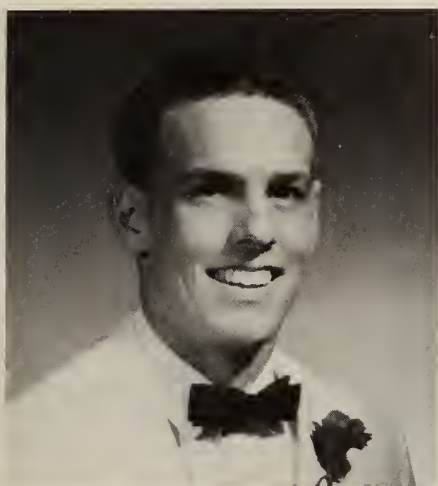

ANDREW S. NAGY

In the five years Andy has graced the College halls, he has been on the honour roll often. He fought with the Fighting Irish and edited the infamous Blue Sheet. His two favourite extracurricular activities — water polo and girls. Andy's next step will be in the direction of the sciences at U.B.C.

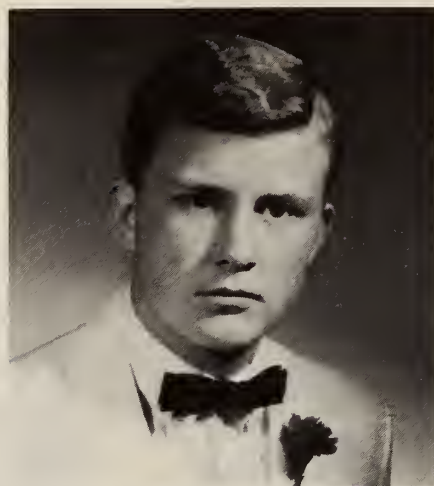

JAMES K. NYBO

Jim's senior year was filled with school activities. He was on the football and track teams, besides belonging to the Monogram Club and the Associated Students' Club. He has reported for the school newspaper and was a cheerleader. After graduation, Jim plans to stay in the west for a U.B.C. education.

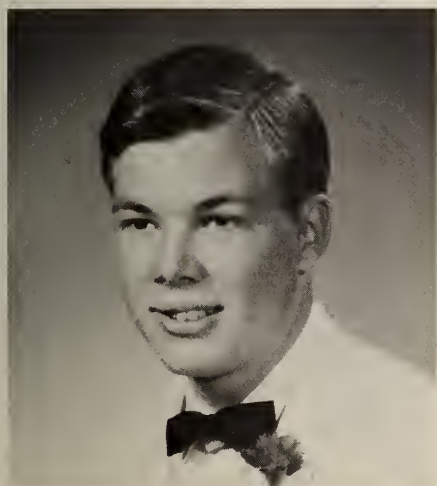

MICHAEL T. O'BRIEN

For eight years, the brothers and College students have been kept laughing at Mike's humour. A consistent honour student, he also has the privilege of being a College cheerleader — a very distinctive position, Mike will move east to McGill where he will enter engineering.

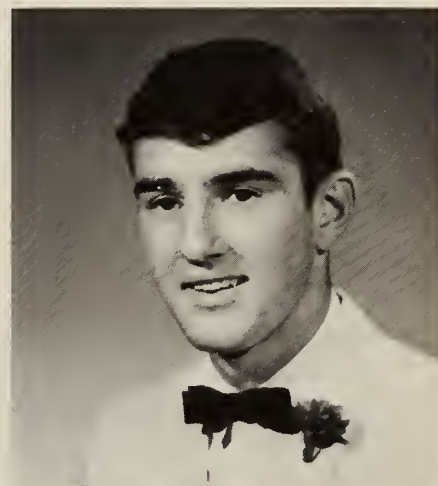

ROBERT F. O'NEILL

Bob has less trouble commuting than most North Shore boys, as his '66 Olds keeps him dry on his way to school. Since breaking into the College five years ago, he has been active in intramurals and the Glee Club. His main diversions are boating, water skiing and fishing. Bob will head into Business Administration at U.B.C.

WILLIAM B. PHILLIPS

Another student who lives under the West Van storm clouds, Bill has escaped them daily for the past nine years. He has played Freshman and J.V. Football and has teased the honour roll constantly. His greatest enjoyment is sleep and his ambition is to satisfy a hunger for more education.

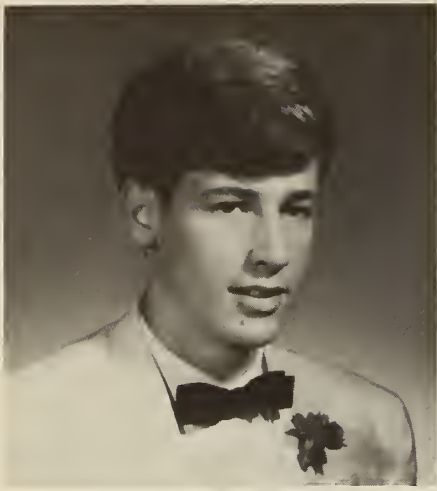

MALCOLM PORTER

Since coming here from Saint Augustine's Parish four years ago, Malcolm's main school activity has been to sit quietly at the back of the class and, aside from life, he enjoys nothing in particular. Malcolm's future is to graduate and then cross the next bridge when he comes to it.

Mike Cavanaugh gets a "College Cut" in the Purge of Longhairs.

RANDALL J. RANGER

Randy came to the College in Grades ten and twelve from Our Lady of Good Counsel. Besides intramurals, he enjoys squeezing pennies out of his row for the missions. His interests center around girls and everything that goes with them. He will etch out a career for himself with the advantage of a higher education at S.F.U.

CESAR REYES
Cesar came north from the warmth of Mexico to complete his high school at the College. In his one year here, he has been active in basketball and boarders' activities. After graduating, he will prepare for a career in Civil Engineering at Menteney, Mexico.

DONALD G. ROSS

Don has managed the full twelve year stretch at the College. Though he has been President of the U.N. Club, editor of the U.N. paper and Assistant Classes Editor of the Yearbook in his senior year, Don has still managed to keep up honour marks. In the little free time he has, he enjoys a sail on his twenty foot sloop or darkroom photography. After U.B.C., Don envisages a dentistry career.

PETER J. SADLER

Eight years ago, this active student came to the College from Saint John the Apostle Parish. He has been a cheerleader and a boon to intramurals. When not working at Oakridge, Pete enjoys skiing. Upon graduation, he will commence the study of law at U.B.C.

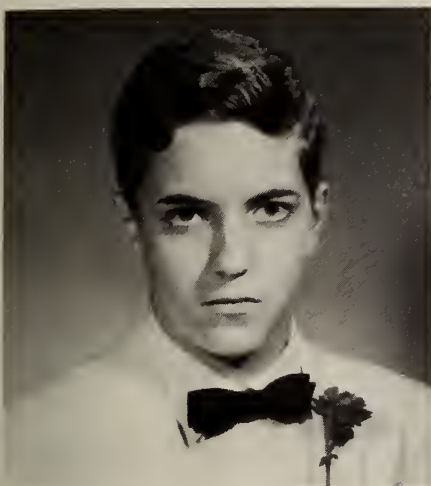

DAVID W. SALMON
Since coming to the College five years ago from Saint Judes Parish, Dave has appeared on the honour roll regularly. His senior year has been spent as the Collegian Sports Editor and a U.N. Club supporter. The more important aspects of Dave's life concern girls, cars and money (which he earns by working on trucks). Dave will follow through his interest in science as an engineer.

TIMOTHY T. SEIPP

After four years here, Tim finally got an outlet for his problems as yearbook editor. In his senior year he also joined Dave Salmon in the U.N. Club and on the honour roll. His main activities are girl-chasing, bowling, skating, dancing, tennis and swimming. While attending U.B.C., he wants to hold a survey on university girls.

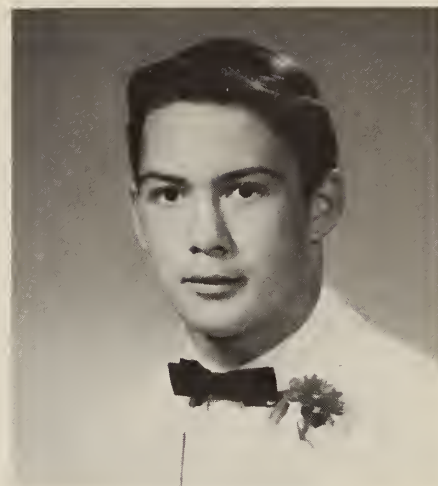

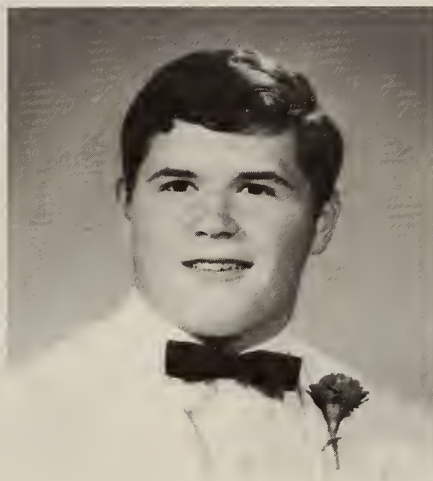

MICHAEL J. SHAW

In his three years at the College, Mike has not been satisfied in second place and has held one of the highest honour records. His principle school activities have centered around the U.N. Club. His leisure hours are spent in reading or in driving the "red beast" (Volvo) seen around the College.

GEORGE E. SIUDUT
A resident of Saint Casimir's Parish, George can look back on a decade of College education. He has been very advantageous to our football and wrestling teams. Outside school he is active in many sports. George's future is still in the clouds.

RALPH E. STEFANI

A four-year College supporter of football, Ralph himself has played on the gridiron three years. He has also been in track for two years. To release his excess energy, Ralph enjoys swimming, tennis, roller and ice skating, baseball, pool, water skiing and fishing. He wants to direct his talents into dentistry at U.B.C.

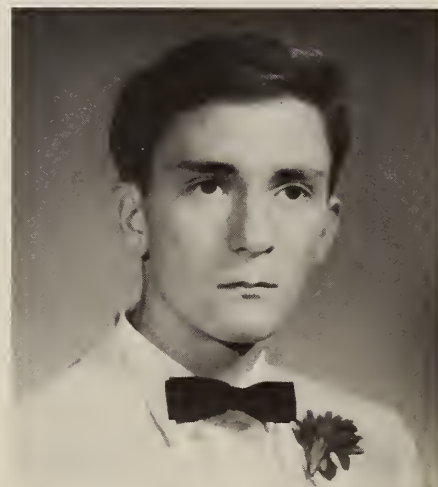

The enthusiasm for Economics which hit so many Seniors last September dwindled to a select few by June.

ARNOLD W. THURGOOD
The opening of Canada's centennial year brought Arnold to the College from Winston Churchill. He keeps in good shape through many sports, though football is his favourite. After finishing his last six months of Grade twelve at the College, Arnold will go to U.B.C.

STUART K. SUNG

Stuart is one of the few who started their College education in Grade one. In his high school years, he has played football, wrestled and has been a cheerleader and member of the newspaper staff. Stu enjoys a refreshing nap in class and "Rhythm and Blues". After graduation, he will attend university.

FRANK M. TOTINO

In the first of his two years at the College, Frank played J.V. football. He enjoys boating, fishing and developing a talent at woodwork. Frank is looking forward to visiting "down-under" — New Zealand. As for a career, he is investigating the field of metallurgy.

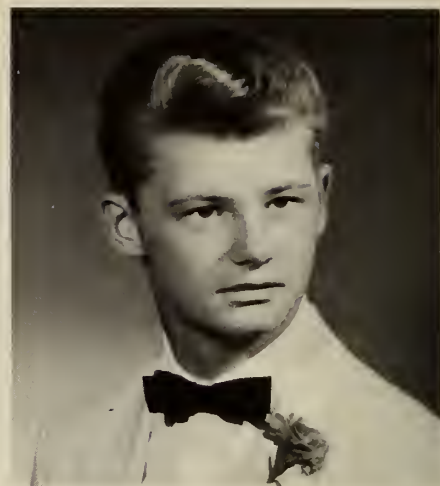

JOHN P. VAYDA

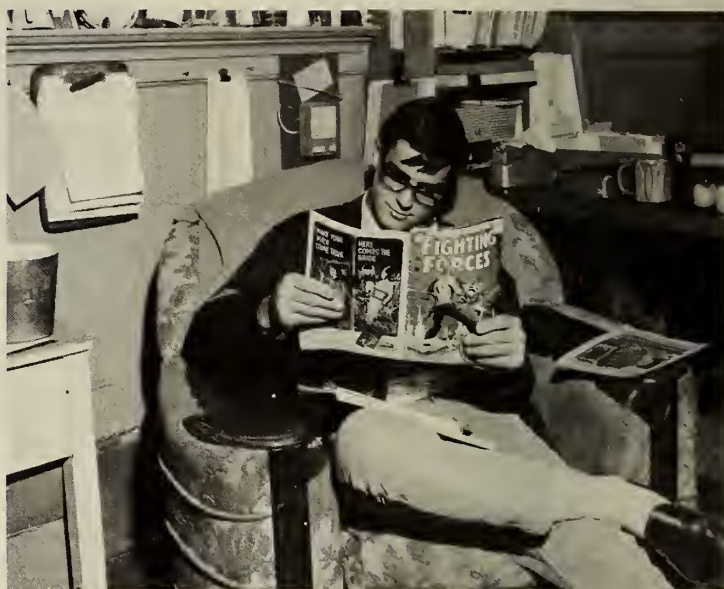

For the past five years, John has competed for top spot on the honour roll. He has been active in intramural basketball and the U.N. Club. When not studying, John skis, horseback rides and plays tennis. To prepare for an architectural career, he wants to move south to U.C.L.A.

WILLIAM WARD

After one year as a boarder in Grade eleven, Willy preferred commuting daily from White Rock in his senior year. In both years, he was vital to Varsity Football. He also belonged to the Associated Students' Club and the newspaper staff. He loves sports and girls (all kinds of both). Bill wishes to etch out a career in Law.

Our illustrious Collegian yearbook editor, Tim Seipp, gets some original ideas from other publications.

S. JAMES WILLIAMS

Jim ran the full course from one to twelve at the College. A star basketball player since Grade nine, Jim has also been a cheerleader and a member of the Associated Students' Club. He releases his tensions through basketball, football, scuba diving, and water skiing. Jim has not yet decided on his future.

KEN WOLFE

Ken came to the College from Seattle Prep for his senior year. He enjoys playing the guitar, making up his own songs, skiing and making excursions to his home town — Seattle. After graduating, Ken wants to return to Washington for university.

MICHAEL J. YOUNG

A lively student from Holy Name Parish, Mike has participated in intramurals and has been on the Collegian staff, besides being a consistent honours student. He releases his energy in football, basketball, swimming and water skiing. Mike's future lies in either Law or Business Administration.

Activities

Moderator Br. Maher, Editor Tim Seipp, and Advisor Br. Lyons hold a summit conference.

Sports Co-Editors Bob Gormican and Dave Salmon plan their section with Sports staff Mike O'Brien, Tom Kolstee, and Dave Gagnon.

Darkroom Editor Craig Boyle and his assistant, Dave Hill, find negatives for Activities Editor Chris Moore. Photographer Dan Cunningham looks on.

The COLLEGIAN

ASSOCIATED STUDENTS' CLUB

The Associated Students' Club, the unified student government, underwent some changes this year and came out more efficient and representing more grades. Its membership now comprises varsity Lettermen, class officers of the high school, and the executives of all school organizations.

Head of the A.S.C. this year was Student Body President Jack McLaughlin, aided by Brian Longpre, John Beaton, Stefan Graham, Dennis Hugh, and Stuart Sung. Brother Rowland moderated.

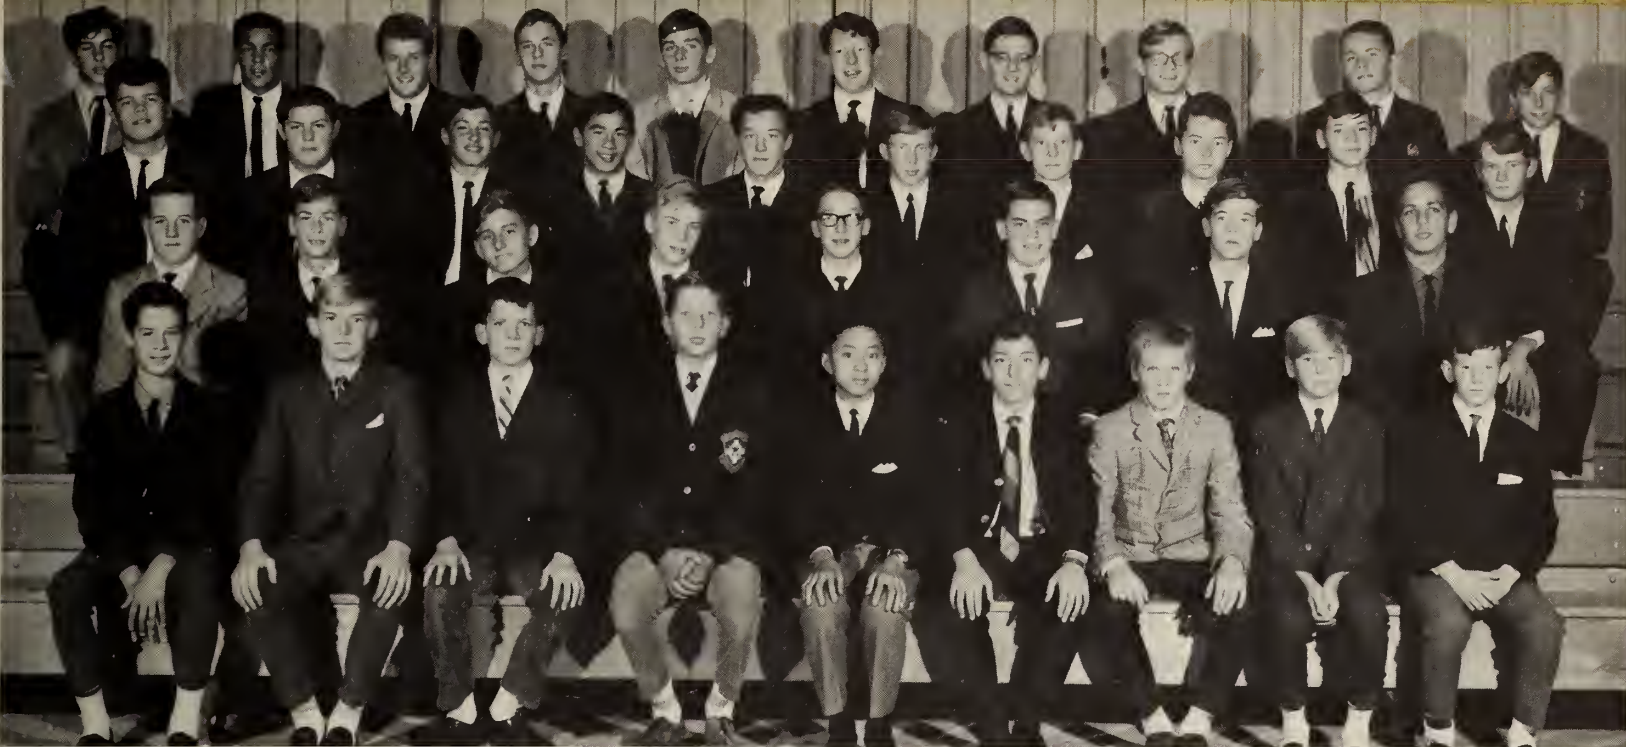

Among the duties of the Club and its committees are the planning of the very successful school dances, the graduation ceremonies and festivities, and the pep rallies.

Another A.S.C. job is performed by Jack McLaughlin and Bob Beaupre — promoting football games.

Giving their time to decorate the cafeteria for one of the dances are Jack McLaughlin, Bob O'Neill, Stuart Sung, and Brian Longpre.

"The Shockers," who played at one of the school dances, were rated a big success.

Various emotions, as expressed by John Barker, Steve Graham, Charles Laddish, and Chris Moore at an assembly.

Club President Don Ross addressing a meeting.

The United Nations' Club, one of the school's larger clubs, aims to give its members an interest in world affairs, some practice in debate and public speaking, and a chance to meet members of other U.N. Clubs. Toward these ends, the club holds weekly meetings and attends model General Assemblies in the region.

This year the club has had over thirty members, led by President Don Ross, Vice-President Chris Moore, and Secretary-Treasurer Bob Gormican, and moderated by Brother Rowland. Membership is limited to grades ten, eleven, and twelve. One member, Peter Grant, served as president of the Vancouver Council, which co-ordinates the activities of all lower mainland U.N. Clubs, and another, Craig Boyle, was the head of the Catholic International Club, a similar organization.

Some of the year's highlights were the week-long seminar held at U.B.C. in August, the Shoreline Assembly in Seattle, and the Vancouver Council Assembly, held at Burnaby Central High School in February.

An important Club project was the raising of funds for the "United Nations' Club Plaque" which the club donated to the school for use as a yearly prize.

The Club also spent much time planning for the Vancouver College Assembly to be held at Easter.

vert, Dan Bowen, Dave Lowe, Mike Gendron, Frank Leahy. FOURTH ROW: Paul Horne, Chris Moore, Eric MacMahon, Ray Gaylie, Tom Kolstee, Hector MacKay-Dunn, Bob Kent, Brian Kennelly.

GLEE CLUB

Music hath charms, to soothe, not only the savage beast but also the student. This is the task of the Glee Club. Directed by Mr. Dean and moderated this year by Brother Drayton, the Club is divided into two parts the senior group, students from grades eleven and twelve, and the junior group, from grades eight through ten. These groups perform both independently and as one.

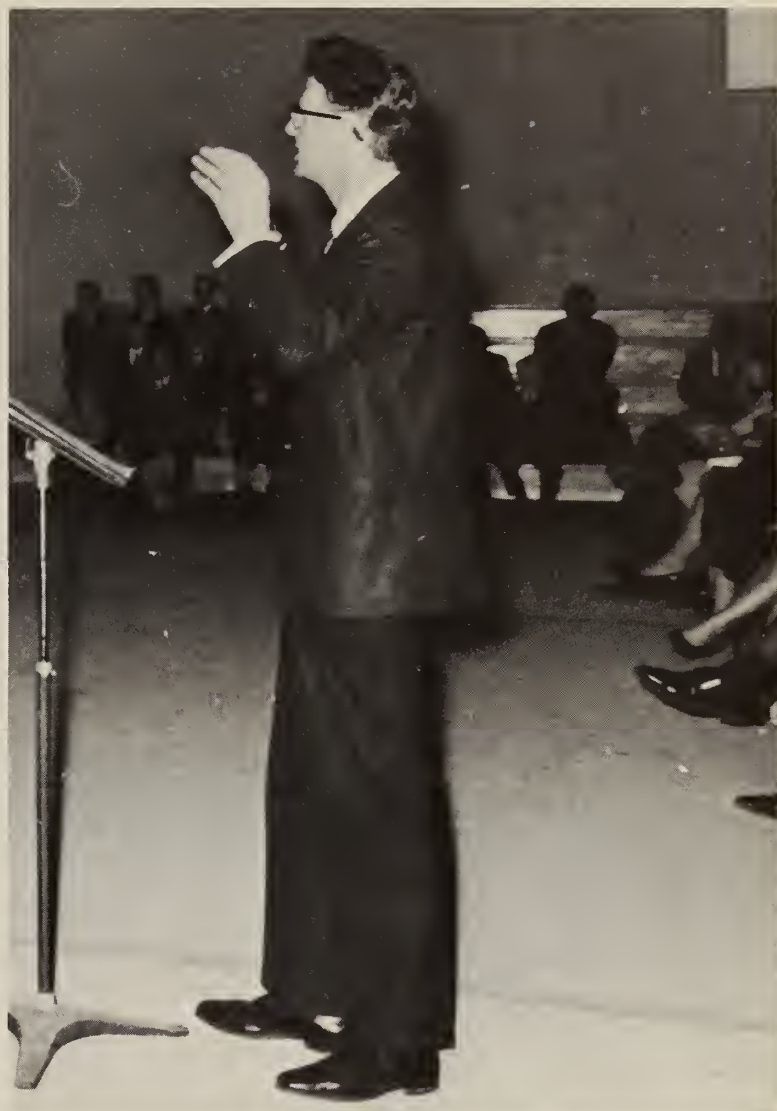

The Club performed in two concerts. In the first, held at Christmas, both popular songs and Christmas carols were presented. For the second concert, a Canadian theme was used in salute to the Centennial.

At the Christmas Concert, Bob O'Neill introduces the next song by the combined Glee Clubs.

SENIOR BOARDERS

During school hours, the boarder is indistinguishable from the day student. After hours, however, his life is slightly different.

To keep their marks up, they have study classes every evening. For relaxation, there is pool, cards, TV, hi-fi, movies and many other diversions. The boarders run their own intramural sports league.

There's work, too. Everybody has chores to do, such as keeping the dorms tidy. The religious side is not neglected, either. And lastly, there's all that food that they are famous for eating.

Under Moderator Brother Fairleigh and President Terry Farmer, the boarders do all the day students do and then some.

Norm Lambert and Rick Ingram soak up the sunshine.

Dwain Wacko comes back from another long weekend.

Cards are a popular diversion for the boarders. Don Bowen thinks Doug West has a good hand here.

Companionship is the special quality held by the Junior Boarders. On the third floor of McCormack Hall, the fifty-four of them form a tightly knit, cohesive group. Together they enjoy many activities: intramural sports according to the season, and a host of indoor occupations for relaxation. In between, there's time to eat, time to sleep, and time for the most important job of all, studying. Behind it all, helping to create the friendly atmosphere which prevails are the moderators, Brothers Kelly, Dawe, and Lynch, who keep order and discipline with a minimum of friction.

The game of kings holds the attention of Paul Conroy and Derek Warren.

Though now a part of the Associated Students' Club, the Monogram Club retains its identity as the athletic elite of the school. Only those who play Varsity Sports may wear the purple sweater and the big gold 'V' of the Monogram Club.

The Club is an important part of the school's student organizations. Members help to organize pep rallies, act as cheerleaders, and put on "publicity stunts" to arouse school spirit. Perhaps the most memorable of these occurred when Mike O'Brien and John Beaton were placed in stocks and used as targets for hundreds of old tomatoes thrown by students.

YOUNG CATHOLIC STUDENTS

The Young Catholic Students is the Vancouver College chapter of a recently formed international religious club. The College club was formed this year, combining the old Legion of Mary and the Sodality. One of its more important projects this year was running the hamper drive which provided turkey dinners for many needy families at Christmas.

Mike Watson seems to suspect food poisoning in this can.

LIBRARY

The library, run by Brother Angel, provides a quiet retreat for teachers and students alike. Here Mr. Rizak finds a moment to correct assignments.

The Drama Club is known for the high cultural tone and the excellent costuming of its productions.

DRAMA

The Drama Club was revived this year after an absence of some years. It performed a valuable service by presenting frequent skits for the pep rallies, but had little chance to do any serious acting.

All the skits which were presented were very well received. Even with the slight acting time they got, Elson Morgan and John MacDonald were stand-outs.

Brother Rowland moderates the Drama Club. Jim Featherstonhaugh, Frank Totino, and Bob Janyk make up the executive.

GUARDSMAN

The "Guardzman" is a new arrival on the College scene. It came into being in November, replacing the old "Blue Sheet." Its large and enthusiastic staff under Editor John Barker and Moderators Brother Gardner and Brother Maher aims to present a professional-style paper to help shape school opinion.

The first issue, a mimeographed introductory sheet, appeared in December. In February the staff presented its next effort, costing five cents a copy. The entire production issue sold out at the first lunch hour. "First edition" copies became extremely rare.

The appearance of the "Guardzman" fills a gap in the activities of the school. It is hoped that this year sees the start of a long line of great "Guardsmen."

IRISH HAVE SPIRIT BUT NOT THE PROOF

Dennis Hugh bites the dirt after another long gainer around right end.

1966 saw the Irish lose their first game to a Canadian team. Both the Centennial Centaurs and the Notre Dame Jugglers shut out the College offence, 14-0 and 12-0 respectively.

There were bright spots this season. The Irish overpowered Abbotsford, 46-7 and downed the St. Thomas Knights 12-7.

As usual the teams from the south proved strong. The Irish showed good spirit, while hampered with injuries, and, although they played well, they failed to record a victory. Bellingham and Woodrow Wilson held the Irish 33-13, in a game far closer than the score might indicate. In their last American game this season the Irish battled Bellarmine to a scoreless tie in ankle-deep mud at Capilano Stadium. Thus, the Irish compiled a season's record of 2-1-9, wins, ties, and losses.

On offence Brian Longpré and Denis Kelly called this season's plays at quarterback and found good support in the backfield from half-backs John Beaton, Dennis Hugh, Bill Ward, and Pat Delesalle; and fullbacks Mike O'Brien, and Jim Harrington. The line found its strength in Stu Sung, George Siudut, Andy Nagy, Ralph Stefani, John Alton, Reg Letourneau, and Jim Nybo.

Coaches Bob DeJulius and Gary Schwertfeger also produced a hard-hitting defence with such stand-outs on the line, as line-backers, John Alton and Pat Maguire; ends, Jim Nybo and Ralph Stefani; and tackle, Stu Sung; and in the backfield Dennis Hugh, Bill Ward, John Beaton, and Brian Longpré.

FIGHTING IRISH ARE

Br. Pender announces as Mr. David Empey presents team captain Jack McLaughlin with his award at the Emerald Tournament.

This year the Fighting Irish basketball team proved beyond a doubt that they had no equals in British Columbia. Their impressive record of 28 wins and 2 losses speaks for itself. Coaches Gene Rizak and Bob DeJulius inherited fine material from last year's coach, Br. Finch, and molded a strong, well rounded team from them. Team captain Jack McLaughlin called the plays calmly yet out-hustled all comers. Controlling the boards and shooting accurately, forward Dave Hislop proved valuable enough to place on the second all-star team in the B.C. tournament. Also on the second string all-star team was forward John Beaton. John's deadly jump shot and solid defense were definitely deciding factors. Bob Beaupré's accurate shots, good ball control, and defensive moves earned him a position on the first all-star team of the tournament. Also deserving of mention are Brian Longpré and Rob Noble, both of whom stood out on defense.

The yearbook staff would like to congratulate both the team, including coaches, managers and ball players, and the fans, who gave their most valuable support, on winning the 1967 B.C. High School Basketball Championship.

J.V. BASKETBALL

The J.V. team had a tremendous season this year, losing only one junior game. Their record for the season was 24 wins and 4 losses. They lost to: O'Dea Intermediates, North Delta Varsity, Steveston Varsity, and Vancouver Tech. Juniors. College was knocked out of the B.C. Tournament when they lost to Vancouver Tech by 1 point after beating them a week before by 40. The team was led by Phil Eivemark, Hugh Legg, Paul Giroday (Gr. 10), Mark Schretlin, and Bill Fraser (Gr. 9). Much of the credit for the J.V.'s successful season is also due to the fine coaching of Mr. Steve Hunter.

MIDGETS

This year's midget team under the skilful coaching of Brother Kelly displayed the same spirit and determination as the senior team. Their overall record stands at 18-1 with the one loss attributed to Seattle. They are rated number one in the C.Y.A. league and show much promise as our future varsity team.

Dave Mills completes another successful lay-up.

Dave Lyall moves up on Dennis Kelly.

TRACK

The Irish track team proved itself again in the 1966 track meet. It was an all round close meet, with College finishing second, only five points behind first place Notre Dame. Among the winners for College were Darrell Matthias who won the Junior Boys' discus and shot-put, and Dave Lyall who placed first in both the Junior Boys' 440 and the Junior Boys' broad jump. Hugh Legg won the Junior Boys' 880 and the mile and Jim Nybo placed first in the Senior Boys' 880 and mile.

Dave Lyall receives the 1966 Junior Boys' Aggregate Trophy.

WRESTLING

Dave Lyall looks for a good hold.

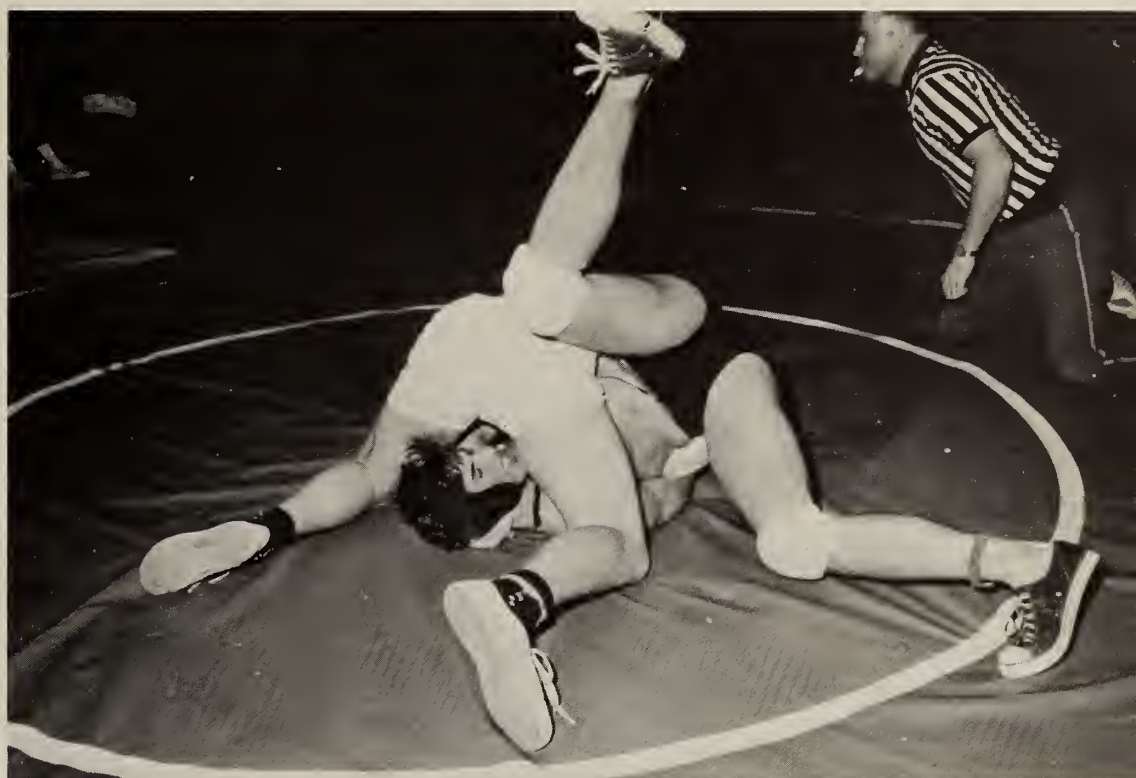

This year's wrestling team worked hard and showed an admirable fifth place in the highly competitive B.C. Championships. Although a young team, their coach Mr. Schwertfeger worked them hard and produced some very fine results. Among the standouts were Faustin Chouinard, Jim Harrington, Pat Flynn, all two year veterans; Rich Gorman and Bill Miloglov.

Arturo Duran, Ed DesRoches, and Don Macaulay combine talents to sketch another of their "orginal" van Gogh's.

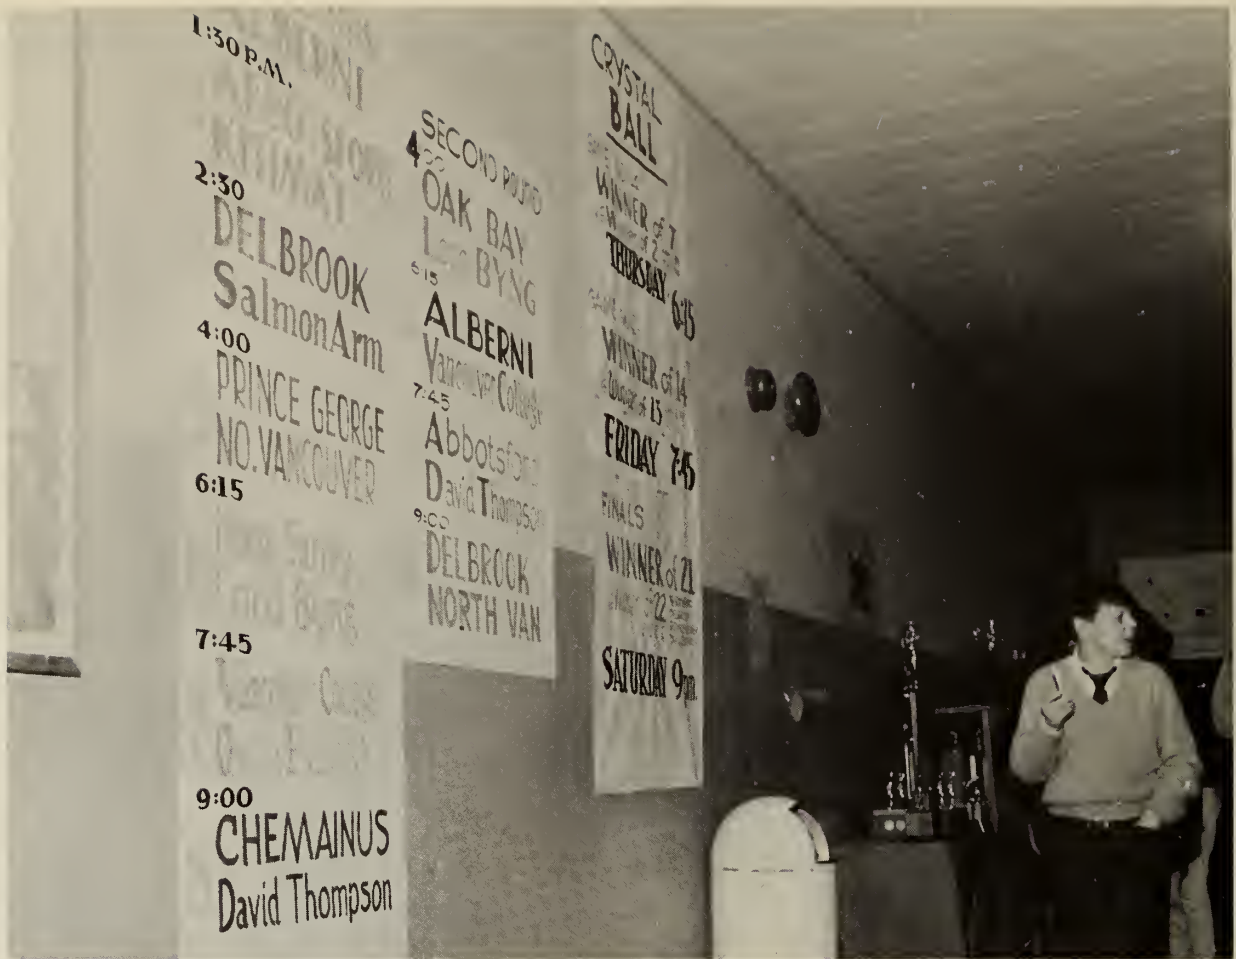

A future conductor directs the Grammar School Band during the Christmas Concert.

Determination and ability produce good tumbling which, this year, was up to College's traditional standards. The tumbling team was coached by Terry Fitzpatrick.

The school year of 1966-1967 was one of numerous student activities with participation from the students reaching an unequalled height. The spirit of the student body was such that, during the course of the year, four dances were held at the school with remarkable turn-outs at them all. With much help and co-operation from Br. Clarkson and other members of the faculty, such activities as the Young Christian Students' Club and the school paper, the COLLEGE GUARDSMEN, got off the ground. The Christmas entertainment was well organized and thoroughly enjoyed by all who attended. In March the United Nations Club hosted a Model U.N. Assembly consisting of over 100 delegates from schools in the Vancouver and District area. Participation at football and basketball games was up from last year and as a result the cheering at the games was more impressive than in years past. One might say that the year of Canada's Centennial, with all its celebrations and projects, was also the year of Vancouver College's most widespread student spirit.

charter — the policy and the people

FOUNDED five years ago, Charter Truck & Trailer Rentals Ltd. today operates Western Canada's largest and most diversified commercial rental fleet.

Available through five service outlets are upwards of 200 trucks and over 100 semi-trailers—a million dollars' worth of equipment for transporters in a tight spot.

Charter's wide range of emergency equipment for busy periods when they have more freight than their fleets can carry does away with the problem of depreciation and upkeep costs on surplus units when business is slack.

Charter keeps its rental plans flexible and its costs low. Current models are always available at short notice. Diversification of rental terms enables Charter to offer units for a job lasting an hour or a year. Diversification of fleet units in keeping with current customer requirements enables Charter to answer calls from heavy haulers, scheduled carriers, local delivery firms, reefer operators and off-highway users.

Associated with the Charter operation is Tepoorten Truck & Equipment Ltd., founded two years earlier. This affiliated organization has for sale a wide inventory of trucks, trailers and specialized equipment.

For the further convenience of its rental and lease customers, Charter also operates a modern, fully-equipped service centre immediately adjacent to its downtown Vancouver mileage market, on the corner of Oak and Sixth Avenue.
